Dear Steve, "Speakerman":

Thank you for keynoting TVPPA's 59th Annual Conference on May 17 in Orange Beach, AL.

This is the fourth TVPPA conference you've opened in the past twelve months, and you continue to exceed our expectations. Audiences love the stories and examples you include in presentations. The ones you used in "The Value of Us" last week were particularly moving and memorable, especially the relationship with your father and your ultimate forgiveness of him.

When booking you, I never have to worry about whether or not you'll be well received. You've been a big hit with every one of our audiences, from engineers to accountants to general managers and CEOs. I'm so glad that Patty White of CSA referred me to you, and I will "pass it on."

By the way, congratulations on attaining your Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) designation! I hope we have the opportunity to experience your professionalism again.

Best regards,

Creed Crowder
